"MONTE CRISTO."

Dumas' Famous Romance Magnificently Filmed by Famous Players.

It is due James O'Neill to say that he has realized all the possibilities of Edmond Dantes and the Count. He has invested the latter with a halo of romance and an air of almost supernaturalism that makes him kin to the conception formed in one's mind during the first reading of the story, years ago. In the altercation between the Count and Capt. Albert in the reception room, the former seems a very reservoir of electric energy, so swiftly and effectively does he dominate the situation. Again, in the struggle in the sea as he rips the sack that encloses him, his perilous position on a pinnacle of rock while the waves surge angrily and lash him with spray his quest for the treasure on the island of Monte Cristo and his hour of vengeance in the home of the crafty Caderousse and Carconte. The last mentioned scene has a tragic atmosphere, all pervading and thrilling, and the spectator is fully informed on the well laid plans leading up to the fate of the guilty ones.

The cave on the island of Monte Cristo, giving a view of the hiding place of the treasure, is another realistic scene, which has been happily selected from one of Nature's making.

The reception given by the Count of Monte Cristo is well in keeping with the fabulous wealth of that personage. It is truly a scene of magnificence and splendor and is the most imposing spectacle in this fine romantic photo-play. The front and interior views of this home of wealth and culture again remind us of the great superiority of the settings of the photo-play to those of the staged drama. The throng of fashionables and dignitaries furnish an array of dresses and uniforms that must have severely taxed the resourcefulness of the costume department.—New York Sunday Telegraph.

CURRENCY BILL WINS IN FIRST ROUND

Washington, Dec. 15.—Victory for the Administration forces in the first test of strength on the currency reform bill marked today's session of the Senate. The vote, 40 to 35, tabled a substitute offered by Senator Hitchcock for Sec. 2 of the administration bill, proposing a system of four regional banks with a possible increase to eight, the regional bank stock to be owned by the public.

The defeat of this amendment practically assured the adoption of the Owen plan, which provides for from eight to twelve regional banks with the stock owned by the National banks that become members of the respective regional banks. The Democratic leaders claimed that the result of the test vote involving one of the most important purposes of the fight, indicated complete success for the administration measure.

Efforts to get an agreement for a time to begin final voting on the bill were not successful today, but leaders on both sides of the chamber looked forward to an early termination of the debate and for final action before the end of the week.

When the Hitchcock substitute had been tabled Senator Reed made a speech vigorously defending the Owen bill and replying to Senator Root, who on Saturday attacked the measure and called Secretary Bryan "the dominating influence" behind the proposed new currency system.

NOTICE R. A. M.

There will be a special convocation of Ada Chapter No. 26, R. A. M. this evening at 7 o'clock for work in the Mark and Past Master degrees, and installation of officers. All officers elected and appointed are requested to be present. F. C. SIMS, H. P.

HUERTA GIVEN A FREE REIN

City of Mexico, Dec. 15.—From now until April 2 President Huerta will be obliged to conduct the government without a congress, as that specially created organization was formally adjourned today. Its most important acts during the session were the ratification of the President's assumption of power over the various departments of the government after dissolving the preceding congress, and granting again to the president this same power, which gives Gen. Huerta until congress convenes again practically the authority of a dictator.

Altogether, the new congress was unobtrusive, interfering not at all with the executive's ideas of government. Its most notable act aside from those directly connected with the executive plans, was the ratification of a concession to a Belgian syndicate to construct 5,000 miles of narrow-gauge railroad.

Gen. Villa's treatment of the Spaniards at Chihuahua has aroused the keen sympathies of the colony here. The Spanish Minister, Senor Colagan y Colagan, sent to Washington today, through the American Charge, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, his thanks for the efforts made by the government to relieve his countrymen.

The situation around Tampico is declared by the government to be satisfactory. Late railroad reports indicate that the Carrancistas in their retreat took away only four locomotives and enough cars to make up four trains.

Reports from other parts of Mexico concern the usual number of minor engagements and Carrancista depredations.

BALKAN STATES IMPOVERISHED BY LONG WARFARE

Philadelphia, Dec. 16.—A condition of general prostration exists in the Balkan peninsula, as a result of the war of the allies against the Turks and the war among the allies themselves, according to Prof. Samuel T. Dutton of Columbia university, a member of the international commission appointed to investigate the Balkan war. Dr. Dutton spoke tonight before the American Academy of Political and Social science which had under discussion the "Aftermath of the Balkan war."

John Sharp Williams, United States senator from Mississippi, a member of the board of trustees of the Carnegie peace endowment, presided.

After referring to the appointment of the commission under the presidency of Baron d'Estournelles, Dr. Dutton said that both wars were conducted with great cruelty, as though extermination were the end sought. Continuing he said:

"The economic situation in any of the Balkan states is far from hopeful. They have borrowed heavily, their armies are still far beyond a peace footing, whereby many men are withdrawn from productive labor. They have to face a larger national debt and a condition of general prostration."

Speaking of the consequences of the war, Dr. Dutton said that social progress in all these countries has received a severe check. All educational institutions have been entirely destroyed. The much needed appropriations for education cannot be increased under present conditions and the vast cloud of illiteracy hanging over those peoples will not soon be removed, he added.

"It is hoped," Dr. Dutton said, "that through the report of our commission and the appeals which are being made by others who are interested in the welfare of the Balkan states the civilized world may reach out a helping hand."

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 15.—Bids for the new book adoption by the State Board of Education were properly made and the board will proceed with the work. This was settled today in a conference by members of the board and Attorney General West. Protest had been made that when an advertisement of the bids had been placed in a local paper Dec. 10 thirty days would not intervene between that date and Jan. 8, when the bids are to be opened and on that account the bids would have to be advertised again. The board had also taken other means to advertise, which fully complied with the law, and the Attorney General decided that the advertisement had been properly made.

The board today settled definitely upon the site for the permanent buildings for the school for the deaf at Sulphur and thus settled a controversy which has raged between the east and west sides of the town ever since the school was located there. The location chosen is on the east side in the same direction as the present temporary location, but a little closer in. The new location is still a mile from the main part of the city. It is on the top of a hill and is regarded by the board as very desirable.

A home for the president of the state university at Norman not to cost more than $15,000 was authorized today by the board. The erection of the building will be under the direction of the board of affairs. The $15,000 was placed as the limit of the cost of the home, although the board may designate any amount less than that.

The board elected Dr. C. R. Day of this city as dean of the state medical school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. W. J. Jolly, who has been dean of the institution since the resignation of Dr. Williams some months ago. It was decided to provide Christmas for the children of the orphan schools and for those at the deaf and blind school who were dependent upon the state.

The new medical school dean came to Oklahoma from Missouri. He served in one legislature from Edmond.

OKLAHOMA REPUBLICANS PLANNING FOR CAMPAIGN

Oklahoma City, Ok., Dec. 16.—Active plans for the republican party in the state campaign next year will be inaugurated at a meeting of the state central committee, which will be held soon. It is learned that State Chairman Arthur H. Geissler will issue the call Wednesday and the committee will then call a state convention, at which a platform will be formulated upon which the state campaign will be based. If the Republican National committee calls a National convention, delegates to that body will be elected by the state convention. It was also stated by a prominent republican leader tonight that the state convention will meet within the next sixty days.

There is talk at Washington of another federal court district being established in Oklahoma. Ada should keep an eye on that move, if it takes definite shape, and makes an effort to get in as one of the court towns.
In view of the heavy docket of the eastern district since the government went into the prosecution of bootleggers, it is very probable that another court will be created. With a federal court here it will be an easy matter to get a federal building.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE CHARGED WITH PERJURY

Today Ben Hampton, justice of the peace of Chickasaw township, was given a hearing before Justice Brown on a charge of perjury and his bond fixed at $750, which he was unable to make.

It is alleged that Hampton swore to the correctness of a record showing fines of $25 assessed against parties who pleaded guilty to gambling when, as a matter of fact, he had not collected that amount.

To Try Von Klein on Bigamy Charge.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 22.—E. E. C. von Klein, the son of an eminent scholar and university professor living in Chicago, is to be placed on trial in the circuit court here tomorrow on a charge of having more wives than the law permits Von Klein's troubles date from a saunter he took about a year ago through the Pompeian room in a Chicago hotel. Scarcely had he entered the room when a handsomely gowned woman dropped the cup of tea she was sipping and springing to her feet exclaimed that she had found her long lost husband. Von Klein emphatically denied that he was the long lost one, but he was locked up on evidence furnished by the woman that he had married in San Francisco in 1911 when he already had a wife. She further alleged that while they were living in Portland von Klein disappeared with her jewels and subsequently engaged in business in Minneapolis. Since his return to Portland the accused man has been tried twice on the larceny charge and each time the jury was disagreed. The prosecution has now decided to try its luck on the bigamy charge.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATES FORUM CLUB OF NORMAL

Monday an interesting and animated debate was pulled off at the high school auditorium between a team from the Forum debating club of the normal and the High school club. The question under discussion was "Resolved that no alien should be allowed to own property in the United States."

Both sides did excellent work and many salient facts were presented.
The decision went to the affirmative, which was represented by Weston, Vance and Jones of the Forum. The High school club was represented by Ralph Smith, Guin and Heatherly.

This is the first meeting of the kind, but it will not likely be the last.
The High school is preparing to meet other teams of the state and the effort of Monday evening indicates that it will stand a fine chance of winning honors in this line.

IF YOU ARE WEAK AND "RUN DOWN"

Common sense demands that the first thing to be done is to put both your nerves and blood into a healthy condition. Your nerves direct the work of your various organs and the blood feeds them. Unless both nerves and blood are in health, you can't be well. Common sense also demands that the medicine you take serve both the above purposes—both tones and strengthens the nerves and nourishes the blood.

Such a medicine is Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion, the ideal nerve and blood and body builder. It is a real nerve food tonic—not an alcoholic beverage, as many so-called "tonics" are. Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion does not contain a drop of alcohol, nor any dangerous or habit-forming drug. It puts new life and health and strength into rundown systems, because every ingredient in it is put in for that purpose, and not to merely stimulate. Unlike alcoholic "medicines," it does not show its effects in a renewed liveliness immediately after taking a dose.
The effects begin to be felt in a few days, however, and they last, because the whole system has been strengthened and health is being renewed. If this is not your experience, we want you to come back for your money.

You who are weak and run-down, and you who are apparently well now but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. You'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its pleasant taste, its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument.

GIRL REAPING THE WAGES OF SIN

Lying at the point of death in a sanitarium in New York, Florence Schenck, who, following her alleged desertion by Charles H. Wilson, stable manager for A. G. Vanderbilt, became a notorious figure in the gay life of Paris and London, has wired to her father in Norfolk, Va., asking him to come to her and grant forgiveness for the wild life she has led, and which she so deeply regrets, when it is too late. The life of this girl is a powerful sermon to all young girls who grow tired of the humdrum existence of home life. A few short years ago she was a beauty, whose face, figure and charm caused her to be idolized by the men-about-town of London, New York and Paris, whose admiration is the worst curse that can befall a woman. From a reigning queen of gaiety this girl dropped steadily to the fate that few of her kind escape. Racked by pain and remorse, this ghastly remnant of what was once a beautiful woman has sent out a message to the world from what seems certain to be her deathbed. She says: "Girls, stay at your home with your parents. They are your only friends. Home is heaven, and the gay life is a veritable hell!"

Those who saw the two presentation of the first two Zigomar dramas will be the first on hand at the De Sota this evening to witness the presentation of the third of the series. This one is far better than either of the other two and one of the most stirring things ever produced by the moving picture makers. Four reels in this stupendous production.

Charged With Extensive Frauds.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—A scheme by which farmers and other persons in many sections of the country have been robbed of thousands of dollars is expected to be unfolded at the trial of Levi L. Johnson and his son, Homer E. Johnson, of Goshen, Ind., well-known commission merchants, who were arraigned in the federal court here today to answer to indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud. The Johnsons were extensive dealers in hay and it is alleged their frauds were perpetrated largely by falsifying invoices and overestimating freight charges. The indictments against them were found on evidence furnished by alleged victims in Florida, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Connecticut, Minnesota, Michigan and West Virginia.

TO IMPROVE PRETTY HAIR AND BEAUTIFY UGLY HAIR

Harmony Hair Beautifier, a delicious liquid hair dressing, is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. No matter how pretty your hair now is, it can be made to look even better by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. To those who mourn because the hair is stringy, dull, lustreless and homely, Harmony Hair Beautifier will prove a real blessing and pleasure. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it silky-soft and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds that "stay put." It overcomes the oily smell of the hair with a dainty, true-rose fragrance, very pleasing to the user and those around.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandrufffree and clean use Harmony Shampoo.
This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet clean liness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c.
Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—than 7,000 leading drug stores of the Great Strike Threatens Colorado.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 16.—Colorado is about to experience the greatest strike in her history, if statements made by labor leaders now assembled in this city reflect the sentiment of the labor organizations of the state. Today, in response to the call issued two weeks ago by President John McLe-lan of the Colorado Federation of Labor, delegates representing the many unions affiliated with the state federation gathered in convention to consider and act upon the proposal for a state-wide strike in support of the United Mine Workers of America, now on strike in the Southern Colorado coal fields. A strike such as is proposed would tie up all the industries of the state for the time being. While many of the leaders openly declare themselves in favor of the state-wide sympathetic strike some of the more conservative and influential among them are advocating a policy of delay in the hope that the miners' strike may be settled without the necessity of resorting to the extreme measure of a general strike.

NORMAL BASKET BALL PROSPECT

Interest in basketball is higher at this time than it has ever been before in the history of the school. In addition to the large Varsity squads, a "Turkey League" is being organized for the benefit of boys under one hundred twenty-five pounds. The league will consist of four teams and will play through a season of eight weeks. The boys have elected Messenger captain. He is one of their most aggressive players and with his experience should make a good leader. Stegall, R. McMillan, Roddie, McCain and Biles are among the most likely candidates for positions on this team. However, Wallace, Garrison, Jennings, Simmons and a host of other strong players are out for places and some of them may land. The work of the girls team has not been entirely satisfactory recently. There has been a noticeable lack of "pep" among some of the players and a general shakeup is looked for. Their next game will be in Shawnee next Friday night.

NORMAL READING CONTEST JANUARY 24

The inter-normal reading contest to decide the championship of the east side of the state, has been postponed to January 24. At that time it is expected that the most interesting contest of the kind yet witnessed will be pulled off.

Just Because.

A little bird whispered a song in my ear,
'Tis a song that for ages has rung loud and clear.
'Tis a song that your mother has sung to you dear.
'Tis the way of a man and a maid.

For the love of a man is a wonderful thing,
But changeable dear, as the passions cling,
But the love of a woman is purer far,
Than the rays that flash from your golden star.

Man's love is wanton,
A flash here and there;
A smile for some face,
Or a head of black hair.

But a woman, ah, love comes but once
It mocks at conventions, Bows heads in the dust.

Perhaps he mistreats her,
But thro' thick and thin,
What ever the world says,
She still clings to him.
And as God intended,
Since the world first began,
And we keep on loving—
What—Just a man.

PRESIDENT CARRIES A HEAVY LOAD

By C. H. Tavenner.

Washington, Dec. 16.—President Wilson carries a greater load of responsibility than any other president since Abraham Lincoln.

This is true because he is the first president who has come into the White House with the firm intention of righting the great wrongs which oppress the people of this country. The president realizes the problem to be solved. His keen intelligence enables him to see that problem in all its frightful magnitude and complexity. I have no doubt that Mr. Wilson lies awake night after night, unable to sleep for analyzing the question, viewing it from all sides, and mentally testing certain remedies for its solution. No president since Lincoln has faced so great a task.

It is this problem which the new congress, with all the intelligence of its leaders and members, with the guidance of the president, and with the aid of many men of profound thought will try to solve.

The problem is not easily stated. Its ramifications are such that no definition quite covers the case. It is something more than a trust problem, for the thing to be destroyed is superior to the trusts which it created. It can best be described vaguely as the Money Power, a financial despotism which, permitted by complacent and controlled government to thrive, has so fastened itself tumor-like in the economic flesh and bone of the republic that it has become as strong as the governmental organs themselves, if not stronger.

The people vaguely feel its existence. It is manifested to the common man in that crushing thing called the increased cost of living. That is the way the Money Power takes its toll, through its insidious tribute laid upon all the purchases of the people. If its taxation were levied directly from the people, the system would drown the country in the blood of a desperate revolution.

This is the fight which the people's government, led by the president, now faces. Do not imagine that it is to be a battle between a giant government and a tough, but dwarfed, antagonist. Rather it is the other way. The government is David and the Money Power, Goliath. The enemy will have on its side great plausibility, the shrewdest lawyers, masters in handling men and legislation, as well as an appeal to that philosophy which exists in every conservative that what ever is, is right.

Those who oppose this tremendous power will be subjected to all the ridicule and contumely which controlled publications and public hired men can heap upon them. The firing line will be no place for the squeamish. It will not be a time for delicate natures to pick flaws in the President for the use of the party caucus or any other weapon that comes to his hand to force through legislation in the teeth of tremendous opposition. The people will judge the administration by results, not by its methods.

Moreover, the people must exhibit patience. The Money Power was not built in a day, nor can it be destroyed by a single act of congress. The enactment of a low tariff has hurled down one of the ramparts protecting the enemy's position. The new currency bill, designed to remove much of the banking reserves from Wall street will be the first solid shot into the hostile camp. But both of these measures will not destroy the Money Power. Radical trust legislation will be a heavy blow, perhaps vital. The legal prohibition of interlocking directorates should do much to scatter the people's enemy. But it will take all these things to have effect, and as the investigations proceed it is hoped that the way will open up for the complete solution of the problem.

Facing Gallows Becomes a Habit.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 16.—Confident that no harm will befall him so long as he retains possession of the left hind foot of a rabbit "killed in a grave yard on a moonlight night," Ervin Pope, a Calhoun County negro, was apparently the least concerned man confined in the Jefferson county jail here today, notwithstanding the fact that this was the day set for his execution. Being sentenced to death has become a regular habit with Pope. Five times has the negro been sentenced to die on the gallows and five times has the date for his execution been fixed. Each time his neck has been saved by an appeal to the higher court, though the condemned man is inclined to believe that the rabbit's foot had more to do with prolonging his life than the action of his lawyers in taking an appeal. The crime of which he was convicted was the murder of J. B. McClurkin, a planter living near Anniston. It is expected Pope's case will be tried for the sixth time early in the new year.

Atlantic, Ga., Dec. 13.—The officials and club of the Southern Baseball League are rounding up in this city for their annual winter meeting, which is to be held here Monday.
